supporting the request to expedite an application or petition including the merits, options for expedited processing of most USCIS applications or petitions in non-immigrant categories. USCIS requires the request letter to be typed or printed in English, for ensuring any other form that requires a typed or printed letter for the relevant purpose or process. The letter must be signed and dated by the person making the request and should be submitted with the application or petition for consideration. The letter must detail the circumstances that justify the expedited processing, such as a medical emergency or urgent business necessity. The letter should be concise and specific, providing all necessary information to support the request. Additionally, the letter must state the time frame in which the expedited processing is needed and outline the consequences of not receiving the expedited processing. Once the letter is submitted, USCIS will review it to determine if the request meets the criteria for expedited processing and will notify the petitioner of the outcome.
