The general assembly recognizes that a new motor vehicle is a major consumer purchase and that a defectively manufactured new motor vehicle is likely to create hardship for or may cause injury to the consumer.

The Motor Vehicle Act is codified in RCW 46.60 and specifies the duty of a manufacturer to adhere to agency safety standards and the duty of a consumer to report defects.

The Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC) issues recalls for vehicles and consumer products that do not comply with safety standards.

The Consumer Product Safety Act (CPSA) requires manufacturers to report potentially hazardous products to the CPSC, and the CPSC must issue a recall if it determines that a product is a substantial risk of injury.

Enduring power of attorney (EPA) is a legal document which sets out who can take care of your personal or financial matters if you cannot. The enduring power of attorney is typically used when the individual is able to make decisions for themselves, but needs someone else to make decisions on their behalf.

An enduring power of attorney cannot be used to make decisions about medical treatment or other decisions that are too complex for the person with enduring power of attorney to understand.

The California Probate Code (CPC) sets out the legal requirements for preparing and registering an enduring power of attorney in California.

The National Enduring Power of Attorney (NEPA) is a national enduring power of attorney that can be used in all states.

The NEPA is a flexible enduring power of attorney that can be used to make decisions about personal and financial matters.

The NEPA is available for free online and can be downloaded and printed for free.

The NEPA is designed to be used by individuals who are able to make decisions for themselves, but need someone else to make decisions on their behalf.

The NEPA is not suitable for use by individuals who are unable to make decisions for themselves, such as individuals with dementia or other cognitive impairments.

The NEPA is a living instrument, which means that it can be revoked at any time by the individual who created it.

The NEPA is not a substitute for a will or a living will.

The NEPA is not a substitute for a power of attorney for health care.

The NEPA is not a substitute for a living trust.
