This book is one of the first personal finance books I can remember reading back in my early 20s. The book is copyrighted in 2001 and 2002, right after 9/11 and the tech crash of the early 2000s, so it's an interesting trip back through time, from first-time newlyweds to people on their second or third marriage. Couples face an overwhelming task when it comes to money management. Nationally renowned financial advisor and bestselling author David Bach knows that it doesn't have to be this way.

Smart Couples Finish Rich provides couples with easy-to-use strategies to make their financial lives smoother. The premise of David Bach's Smart Couples Finish Rich is the idea that there's enough uncertainty to avoid calling it fact, though David Bach does this. The primary source of disagreement between a couple is finances. Why does money always worm its way into the core of a relationship and begin to fester?

Smart Couples Finish Rich offers nine steps to creating a rich future for you and your partner. The steps are:

1. Build your dream basket
2. Ditch debt
3. Save income
4. Conquer expenses
5. Create a budget
6. Build equity
7. Protect your assets
8. Increase your income
9. Give back

These steps provide a clear path to achieving financial freedom at any age.
