268, manu smriti is one of the most heavily criticized of the scriptures of hinduism itself. Many including maharshi dayananda believe that the text we find today is not the original one all the texts cannot be authentic because it contradicts vedas. Whatever scriptures contradict vedas cannot be considered as authentic in hinduism.

The editorial advisory committee has provided valuable guidance to the editorial board from time to time. We convey our thanks to each and every member of the committee. The management of the institute is to be thanked for giving appreciations showing continuous interest and providing sufficient.

Introduction

The Vishnu smriti or Vaishnava dharmasstra or Vishnu stra is in the main a collection of ancient aphorisms on the sacred laws of India and as such it ranks with the other ancient works of this class which have come down to our time. It may be styled a dharma stra though this ancient title of the stra works on law has been preserved in the mss of those smritis.

Dasharatha was the king of Kosala the capital of which was the city of Ayodhya. He had three queens: Kausalya, Kaikeyi, and Sumithra. He was childless for a long time and anxious to produce an heir. He performs a fire sacrifice known as Putra Kameshti yagya. As a consequence, Rama is first born to Kausalya. Bharata is born to Kaikeyi, and Sumitra gives birth to twins named Lakshmana and, Rani Dullaiya.
