Why you should thank your boss for the raise and or bonus.

A promotion thank you letter is written after getting promoted to a new post. It is a thank you letter written by the employee to the management team for considering him for the post. Generally, the letter is filled with promises and assurance about giving the best in the field so that the concerned employee should justify the promotion.

A verbal thank you does not have the same impact as a thoughtful note does. So when it's time to go the extra mile and compose some sincere thank you notes to your boss for circumstances you are appreciative of, your thank you note to your manager should be kept short and to the point.
