woman pours the entire contents of an alabastron of very expensive perfume over the feet of Jesus only in this account Jn 12:18 is the woman identified as Mary with the earlier reference in John 11:12 establishing her as the sister of Martha and Lazarus, Mary and Martha are identified as loved by Jesus in John 11:5 Luke doesn’t say that Martha was doing housework in the western church Mary of Bethany was confused with Mary Magdalene Mary and Martha are the original apostles to the apostles Mary of Bethany is the woman who anointed Jesus, as the one Jesus loved and John 11:5 indicates that Jesus loved Mary and Martha as well so we can assume that Lazarus was closer to Jesus than the scarcity of references to him would indicate so naturally it seemed odd to the disciples that Jesus chose to do nothing when he heard that Lazarus was sick but Jesus likely knew that Lazarus was, that John borrowed Luke’s Lazarus and Mary and Martha characters when composing his own accounts of the raising of Lazarus and the anointing of Jesus 1 in 1978 C.K Barrett still could expound a refined, the story of Martha Mary and Lazarus is to be found in John’s Gospel only it is never mentioned in any of the other gospels although John says that Jesus raised Lazarus from the dead after, Jesus and he wants them to come to him 12 Jesus cares for Martha Mary and Lazarus John 11:3-4 21 23 32 44 Jesus wept when he saw their sorrow to see when we are sad Jesus is sad for us 13 Riding into Jerusalem Mark 11:1-10 Jesus rode into Jerusalem on a donkey to praise Jesus as they did when he rode into Jerusalem, to remember Jesus is the resurrection and the life vocabulary resurrect to come to life again after death lesson John 11:1-44 for readers use the linked script and have students read the various parts Lazarus was a good friend of Jesus his sisters Mary and Martha were also devout followers of the Lord, Mary Martha and their brother Lazarus lived together in Bethany a small town in Judaea near Jerusalem they were faithful followers of Jesus and Jesus loved them very much one day while Jesus was visiting them Martha was busy cleaning the house and preparing food, Jesus sits on one of the chairs while Mary sits on the floor at Jesus feet Martha picks up the pot and spoon and stirs narrator Martha’s sister Mary lived with her usually she helped Martha but today Mary sat at Jesus feet and listened to his teachings and stories meanwhile Martha was busy getting the meal ready, raising the dead 6 of 6 by Dave Gustavsen now a man named Lazarus was sick he was from Bethany the village of Mary and her sister Martha 2 this Mary whose brother Lazarus now lay sick was the same one who poured perfume on the Lord and wiped his feet with her hair 3 so the sisters sent word to Jesus Lord the one you love is sick, summary Martha beavered away serving Lazarus a former dead man had a story to tell and mary was extravagant in her worship there are lessons for us in these three characters on maundy thursday we hold meals around the town in homes and in churches in honour of jesus here was a dinner, the gospels record that jesus felt comfortable in the home of mary and martha and their brother lazarus the four werent just acquaintances they were close friends earlier when jesus had come to resurrect lazarus from the dead he showed great respect and love for mary and martha john 11 3 therefore his sisters sent to him, although both were upset and disappointed that jesus did not arrive before lazarus died martha ran out to meet jesus as soon as she learned he had entered bethany but mary waited at home john 11 32 tells us that when mary did finally go to jesus she fell at his feet weeping, martha and mary two sisters beloved friends of jesus of nazareth the story of martha amp mary has 3 parts 1 jesus visits martha and mary martha and mary offer hospitality to their friend jesus of nazareth a controversial rabbi from galilee mary sits and listens to him as he talks but martha objects to the fact that she is left with all the work, this skit was written for a wednesday night lesson on the story of lazarus but it can be used in any church class it can be done simply while reading it in class and the children act it out as they are reading from their scripts or as extensively as a full blown production on stage with costumes and props, a few months before this incident we find mary and martha at a time of crisis their brother lazarus was dead jesus had gone with his disciples beyond jordan into the place where john at first baptized john 10 40 after lazaruss sisters sent word to jesus it was martha who went out to meet him while mary sat still in the, 4 in what way was marthas family unusual and what was the familys relationship with jesus 4 it was months earlier lazarus was alive and well his home in bethany was about to receive the most important of visitors jesus christ lazarus martha and mary were an unusual family three grown siblings who evidently shared a home, she believed lazarus was gone forever however the words jesus said from the cross about feeling forsaken by god may have connected with how martha felt on a deeper level the reflections from martha help us consider how we can hope for a different ending in our story even when we feel forsaken, jesus in his many trips to jerusalem with his parents would stop at bethany a small hamlet to rest there jesus met mary martha and lazarus for the first time when he was 13 years old from that moment on they became close friends and it was jesus custom to visit with them every time he would be around the area, in luke chapter 10 jesus comes to the home of mary and martha its a big deal to host the son of god and martha works hard to make sure that he is comfortable and well fed while she hustles to cook serve and clean her sister mary hasnt left jesus side, the siblings martha mary and lazarus lived in bethany a village in judea magdalene means of magdala so mary magdalene came from the town of magdala in galilee mary of bethany this mary sat at jesus feet while her sister martha took care of guests she watched jesus raise her brother lazarus from the dead, thanks to biblical accounts in luke 10 and john 11 and 12 stories about mary and martha are well known these two women were friends of jesus and sisters of lazarus they lived in bethany near jerusalem and jesus and his disciples were welcome to stay at their house whenever in the area, the ladies of lazarus by stephanie becken this play combines elements of capturing the scene from the biblical story and an application of modern language the play shows jesus empathy to the two sisters pain of losing their brother this medium length longer piece would work well, we are all familiar with the story in john 11 of jesus raising lazarus from the dead in john 11 and the little conversation that jesus had with martha before he raised lazarus here is how i have usually read john 11 39 44 scene mary and martha are upset with jesus because they had sent a message, jesus gently lifted me up and said martha your brother will rise again i did not realise he meant now of course i thought he meant later at the end of the world take me to the cave where hes buried jesus said and when we got there jesus cried i have never seen him do that before and it made me realise he really did, journey with tommy and eddie as they imagine what it must ve been like to watch lazarus walk out of the tomb sometimes it takes death to remind us what abundant life is all about category, jesus loved this family and he visited them often he even raised lazarus after he had died one time jesus was teaching his followers at mary and marthas house martha was busy working and serving but mary was sitting at jesus feet listening carefully to all his words martha asked jesus to tell mary to help with the work but the lord, martha my sister mary and i martha of bethany sent word to jesus that our brother lazarus was ill i found out later from john what jesus told his disciples about that voice i love lazarus and his sisters very much this sickness is not to end in death but for the glory of god so that the son of god may be glorified by it martha, martha and mary are the yin and yang of the female personality martha is the busy worker and house keeper active and productive her sister mary is reflective eager to learn martha takes the initiative by fetching jesus to their house when lazarus dies mary sits and listens to jesus as he teaches, mary first of two anointings by two different women john 12 1 11 mary the sister of both lazarus and martha anointed Jesus feet with spikenard six days before he was to be crucified. Spikenard is a very expensive perfumed ointment used for anointing the dead. Mary, Martha, and Lazarus, Jesus’ friends.

Jesus traveled all over Judea teaching and performing miracles. One day, he traveled to Bethany and was welcomed to the home of two sisters and a brother: Mary, Martha, and Lazarus. Martha served the food to her guests.

Mary’s gift to Jesus during the dinner: Mary took some vastly expensive perfume and smoothed it over Jesus’ feet, then wiped his feet with her long hair. One of Jesus’ friends, Judas Iscariot, objected to the waste of money but Jesus again sided with Mary, defending her action.

Two sisters had Jesus over for dinner when he arrived; they did two very different things. See how Jesus responded to them in Luke 10:38-42 and why he may have responded that way.

Matthew 22:36.

Jesus sits down along with his disciples. Mary comes in and sits down at Jesus’ feet. Martha goes to the kitchen area and begins mixing, pouring, etc. Narrator: She had a sister called Mary who was seated at the Lord’s feet, listening to his word.

Martha looks over and sees Mary rolls her eyes and wipes her brow.

Mary and Martha have another encounter with Jesus in the gospel of John. See John 11.

In that gospel, we find out that they had a brother named Lazarus. He must have been considerably younger for Martha to be the owner of the house. Back from the dead: A Bible story about Lazarus by Rosemarie Ann Haas as told on an award-winning children’s chapel site featuring Bible stories from a variety of authors.

Excellent Christian resources for children and over 140 links to other Christian and family-friendly sites for kids. The Bible states that Martha and Mary along with their brother Lazarus lived in Bethany, which was only about 2 miles outside of Jerusalem. Apparently, they all were well known in the community.

As we read that many Jews came and comforted Martha and Mary when their brother Lazarus died, we also see that Jesus was very fond of all three. He loved them.

Jesus at the home of Martha and Mary. Perfect for kitchen to not be troubled about culinary perfection. Marta y Maria Saint Martha, Mary and Martha Jesus pictures. Jesus pics. Bible pictures. Mary Magdalene. New Testament. Lord and Savior. The Bible tells us that Jesus loved Lazarus and Martha and Mary but Jesus didn’t hurry to Lazarus house to heal him. Instead, Jesus said that what was happening would show how great God is.

So Jesus waited two days to go see Lazarus. Have kids sit in silence for a moment to experience the waiting for Jesus. In John 11, we see Mary and Martha mourning the death of their brother Lazarus. They basically told Jesus it really stinks that you weren’t here to heal him. Now it’s too late. Our brother is dead.
stinks as Jesus approaches the tomb and calls for it to be opened. Martha is beside herself by this time; there is a bad odor.
