Speech on Unity in Diversity in simple and easy words
April 16th, 2019 — Speech on Unity in Diversity

Speech on Unity in Diversity — 1 Hon’ble Vice President

Respected Principal

Respected Professors and Administration

staff members and my dear fellow students

Today is the Republic Day — the most important day for every Indian — the day when the Constitution of Independent India was formed.

Unity and diversity are integral to Indian society. Unity is the basis of a strong nation, while diversity enriches our culture and heritage. In this spirit, let us embrace diversity, accept each other’s differences, and work together towards a better future.

Let us strive for unity in diversity, as it is the message and diversity is the messenger. A united and diverse India will stand tall on the global stage.

Together, let us make this Republic Day a day of unity and diversity, a day to celebrate our shared heritage and diversity.

Thank you.
Unity in diversity is a concept of unity without uniformity and diversity without fragmentation. It shifts the focus from unity based on a mere tolerance of physical, cultural, linguistic, social, religious, political, ideological, and psychological differences towards a more complex unity based on an understanding that difference enriches human interactions.

Cultural unity vs. cultural diversity, with its emphasis on strength through variety, has been widely sought and celebrated in the United States in recent years. Awareness of cultural norms, sensitivity to the needs and concerns of people unlike ourselves, and a focus on intercultural cooperation are all ideals.

We all know that India is not merely known for engineering industries but also because of its diverse populace, multiple languages, communication, multiple faiths, and traditions of different races with different faces and fantastic landscapes. Indonesia's national motto, 'Bhinneka Tunggal Ika,' meaning 'unity in diversity,' refers to the concept of unity without uniformity and diversity without fragmentation.
