A banquet invocation prayer is generally led by a religious cleric such as a priest or rabbi. The cleric might read from a textbook or a passage from the Bible. Banquet invocation prayers can be generic or specific to the event, such as a sports banquet or a religious gathering. They are often led by a religious leader and can include prayers for guidance, protection, and success.

For sports banquet prayers, it is common to use a prayer that acknowledges the physical and mental demands of the sport and the teamwork involved. Here is an example of a sports banquet prayer:

"God, we thank You for the opportunity to gather together for this sports banquet. We ask that You bless our athletes and coaches, that they may be a shining example for all to see. Help us to grow in Your love and work with You to build up the kingdom of God. Amen."
