The national examinations council of Tanzania (NECTA) has announced the results of its standard seven national examinations on Tuesday, October 23. The pass rates have improved by 4.96 per cent, according to the council.}

Before NECTA was established by law in 1973, the curriculum and examinations section of the ministry of education was responsible for the conduct of primary school leaving examinations.

Roles of national examinations council of Tanzania

Summary of NECTA's history

After Tanzania mainland had pulled out of the East African Examinations Council in 1971 and before NECTA was established by law in 1973, the curriculum and examinations section of the ministry of education was responsible for the evaluation of the conduct of primary school leaving examinations.
