Lutheranism is a major branch of Western Christianity that identifies with the teaching of Martin Luther, a 16th century German reformer. Luther's efforts to reform the theology and practice of the church launched the Protestant Reformation. The reaction of the government and church authorities to the international spread of his writings beginning with the 95 theses divided Western Christianity. Female genital mutilation (FGM) is the ritual cutting or removal of some or all of the external female genitalia. The practice is found in Africa, Asia, and the Middle East and within communities from countries in which FGM is common.
