ADA reasonable accommodation

February 25, 2014

Dear [Name],

This is in response to your letter to Chair Jacqueline A. Berrien dated December 6, 2013 concerning a sample reasonable accommodation policy and accompanying sample form sample letter asking for a workplace accommodation under the New York City Human Rights Law. What does this letter request? This letter is drafted to ask for a reasonable accommodation under New York City's Human Rights Law. This letter may be a helpful model for asserting rights under other state, as well as its extent. For example, information from doctors is unnecessary where the limitation and need for accommodation is known or obvious.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
If you have documentation that supports your disability, you may obtain a reasonable accommodation that involves an adjustment to a building or property used by the landlord, an alteration of a condition on the property, or an exception to a rule of the landlord. You may need to provide these documents to your landlord. You may also need to complete an application for reasonable accommodation. If you have any questions about this process, you can contact the legal services for the elderly helpline at 1-800-833-3743.

If you believe you have been discriminated against because of your disability, you may need to file a complaint with the Equal Housing Opportunity Commission. If you are a tenant or lessee, you can file a complaint with the state or local housing agency. You can also file a complaint with the federal government or the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. You can also consult your state or local fair housing laws to determine if they apply to your situation.

Examples of reasonable accommodations for employees with disabilities

The California Code of Regulations Section 7293 lays out several reasonable accommodation examples that employees can request from their employer. Here are just some common examples:

- Sample Letter to Request a Reasonable Accommodation

  April 10th, 2019 - Under the provisions of the Fair Housing Act, an assigned accessible parking space is one of the reasonable accommodations you must make to your current parking space policy. Also under the provisions of the Fair Housing Act, you have an obligation to provide a prompt response to my request for a reasonable accommodation.

- Letter of Accommodations Office of Disability Services

  April 16th, 2019 - What is a Letter of Accommodations? A Letter of Accommodations (LOA) is a document provided by the Office of Disability Services that explains to faculty the reasonable accommodations to be provided to a student. The Letter of Accommodations is given to students who have met all of the following criteria.

- FIRST EDITION Fair Housing Handbook Reasonable Accommodations

  April 21st, 2019 - A request is generally not reasonable if the accommodation would fundamentally alter the nature of our business operations. If the requested accommodation or modification is not reasonable, we can use the interactive process to explore other alternatives that would address the person's need and that would be reasonable.

- Requesting a Reasonable Accommodation

  March 13th, 2018 - To Bob Jones, HR Director, From Sarah Smith, Customer Service Representative. Dear Mr. Jones, I am a customer service representative in the Omaha call center. I have depression and need some scheduling changes.

- Letter of Accommodation

  April 18th, 2019 - A letter of accommodation can refer to the letter written by a person with a disability requesting reasonable accommodation and support for their situation or the letter written by a property owner confirming that a Visa applicant has verifiable accommodation upon their arrival in the country.

- How To Respond To ADA Accommodation Requests

  April 18th, 2019 - With the amendment to the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) broadening the definition of "disability," the focus in ADA matters has turned more and more to accommodation issues. Some accommodation requests are easy to deal with, while others are more complex.
